

The Tri-Cities' most widely read newspaper says vote "no" on the Broadband Referendum

Kane County

Chronicle

October 23, 2004

"Voters soundly rejected the measure 60 percent to 40 percent." (In Spring 2003)

"Critics have every right to be wary that such an endeavor is predicated upon a business theory, and not a business plan..."

"...supporters become visibly frustrated when asked, at the end of the day, how the government could not be held liable in some way for a failed system."

"...voters should not support this referendum. Not this time. We recommend a 'no' vote."

...While other local media agree broadband plan has faults

Daily Herald

October 27, 2004

"...the campaign by the pro-broadband group Fiber For Our Future, which circulated petitions to put the issue to vote, also is marked with inconsistencies."

"...with new technology emerging, it would be surprising to see local government offer more for less."

Vote No On The Municipal Broadband Referendum On November 2nd.
